Tour Itinerary

Day 1 - Sydney to Bourke & Tibooburra

We look forward to welcoming you at Bankstown Airport, Sydney, as we prepare to depart on this unique flying safari exploring The Outback and its iconic pubs. We board our private aircraft flying west to Dubbo where we will stop briefly to refuel and stretch our legs. Back in the air we fly to the Outback town of Bourke, the former inland port where wool was exported from the area on paddle steamers down the darling river. we will enjoy drinks and lunch at the Port Of Bourke Pub.

Next stop is Tibooburra in Corner Country, surrounded by an arid landscape and remarkable granite rocky outcrops. You cannot miss the extraordinary Clifton Pugh mural in the bar of the popular watering hole of The Family Hotel. This evening we are dining across the road in the sandstone Tibooburra Hotel, dating back to the gold rush era of 1882. We are now 1187 kms from Sydney.

Day 2 - Tibooburra to Innamincka & Birdsville

After breakfast we board our private plane flying to Innamincka, where we stop at the pub for lunch, a surprising oasis in South Australia's rugged Outback. Back in the air unwind and enjoy infinite skies as we fly towards the historic town of Birdsville. Upon landing, our plane will taxi us right up to the front door of the famous Birdsville Hotel. Where else in the world can you do that!

Enjoy a beer and the view from the verandah while we wait for our four wheel drive to take us to "Big Red" - the Simpson Desert's largest sand dune. Share the experience of a stunning golden sunset from the top of the dune with drinks and nibbles. This evening we enjoy traditional Outback hospitality at the pub.

Overnight Accommodation: The Birdsville Hotel, an icon of Australia's desert country.

Day 3 - Birdsville to Oodnadatta and William Creek

A day to remember as we sweep due west across the magnificent Simpson Desert, the largest Parallel sand dune desert in the world. We fly at an altitude where we will have a birds eye view of more than 1100 sand dunes, shaped into long red waves by westerly winds. Witness this spectacular landscape before landing "in the middle of nowhere" at the licensed Pink Roadhouse at Oodnadatta, for a well earned beer and lunch.

Back in the air we follow the famous Oodnadatta Track to the remote Outback post of William Creek. This evening we dine at the authentic bush pub, The William Creek Hotel, which really comes alive during the winter months. The pub is loved by travelers from all around the world, with a front bar decorated by hundreds of notes, memorabilia and mementos.

Overnight Accommodation: The William Creek Hotel

Day 4 - Tour of Lake Eyre and Marree

Begin the day with a hearty pub breaky before a day of exploration. This morning we swap our wings for wheels for a guided tour to the world's largest salt lake, the wondrous Kati Thanda-Lake Eyre.

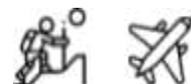

This afternoon gives us a unique opportunity to view one of Australia's hidden iconic landmarks as we fly over the Painted Hills of Anna Creek Station.

From there, we fly through the lower part of Lake Eyre, before tracking over the modern geoglyph, The Marree Man. We then land at the junction of the Birdsville and the Oodnadatta Tracks at Marree. Enjoy a night at the magnificent heritage listed Marree Hotel, regarded as the most impressive in the outback.

Overnight Accommodation: The Marree Hotel

Day 5 - Marree to Broken Hill, Tilpa and Sydney

Enjoy the stunning Flinders Ranges from the air as our private aircraft takes us to the mining town of Broken Hill. Visit the interactive Flying Doctors Museum in the Silver City before we fly to The Tilpa Hotel. Established in 1894 to service the river boat trade, the pub is a classic, character-filled Outback pub made of corrugated iron and timber. The perfect place to enjoy our farewell lunch in the Outback. Enjoy the scenery and relax as our plane takes us back to Sydney later in the afternoon.
