Tour Itinerary

Day 1 Sydney to Mungo National Park

Relax as our private aircraft sweeps south west from Sydney to the ancient spiritual world of Mungo National Park. Our Indigenous ranger will guide us through one the most spectacular Outback landscapes with immense cultural significance. Walk the Walls of China where scientists have discovered artefacts dating back over 50,000 years. See the footsteps, ancient fire places and where the famous Mungo Man was discovered. Witness the stunning sunset over this vast landscape. You are truly in Australia's Outback.

Overnight Accommodation: Mungo Lodge

Day 2 Mungo to Broken Hill

Our plane takes us over the Menindee Lakes to the Outback mining town of Broken Hill. Explore the dusty streets of nearby Silverton, made famous by the Mad Max movie. Gain an insight into the harsh realities of mining a century ago as we explore a former underground silver mine. What better place to view the golden hour but at the Living Desert Reserve with its massive sculptures surrounded by endless flat terrain.

Overnight Accommodation: The Astra, boutique accommodation in an historic hotel in the heart of the Silver City

Day 3 Broken Hill to Tibooburra

The surrounding unique Outback landscape of Broken Hill has always been a magnet for artists and art lovers so a visit to Pro Hart's Gallery is a must. Before departing we visit the interactive Royal Flying Doctors' Museum, showcasing an important part of our pioneering history. Enjoy Outback scenery from our unique aerial perspective as we fly to our next destination - the historic gold rush town of Milparinka, where we can taxi to the front door of the pub for an afternoon refreshment. Amongst the arid landscape and remarkable granite rocky outcrops we land at the remote Outback post of Tibooburra in Corner Country. You cannot miss the extraordinary Clifton Pugh mural in the bar of the popular watering hole of the Family Hotel. This evening we are dining across the road in the sandstone Tibooburra Hotel, dating back to the gold era of 1882.

Overnight Accommodation: The Tibooburra Hotel

Day 4 Tibooburra to Trilby Station

Today our plane takes us to the Outback town of Louth where we enjoy a drink at Shindy's Inn, overlooking The Darling River.

We take an Outback dirt track to Trilby Station, a family owned 320,000 acre sheep station. This overnight stop focuses on offering the true Australian Outback station experience, gaining insight into life on a remote sheep property. Immerse yourself in the landscape, appreciating a bush sunset with drinks and canapés.

Over a home cooked dinner under the stars you will hear about life on the station from fifth generation farmers, The Murray Family.

Overnight Accommodation: Trilby Station, an Outback property on the Darling River (Guests will stay in the fully renovated Stockman's Cottages and the new Shearer's Bunkhouse with shared bathroom facilities)

Day 5 Trilby Station to Mudgee

Wake up in peaceful and serene Outback surroundings. Take a morning walk along Trilby's ten kilometre walking track beside The Darling. Walk with the wildlife... smell the bush. You are a world away from the Big Smoke.

After a country cooked breakfast, our host Liz will take us on a walking tour to see the state of the art shearing shed and impressive aircraft hanger.

A traditional shearer's morning tea, Smoko, is waiting for us at the neighbouring historic Dunlop Station. This was the first sheep station in the world to use mechanical shears and our host Kim is keen to share its fascinating history. We will also tour the homestead, dating back to 1886.

Departing the Outback with a deeper connection to the bush spirit of Australia, we fly to our final destination. Mudgee is a foodie's paradise and our country's oldest wine region. Tonight we will enjoy some fine dining in this refined country township, with its heritage streetscapes.

Overnight Accommodation: Perry Street Hotel, boutique luxury in an historic building, Mudgee

Day 6 Mudgee to Sydney

We venture out into the glorious rolling hillsides to visit some award winning wineries and sample their stunning produce. With more than 40 cellar doors in the region, we have hand picked what we consider the best for you. What better way to end our trip over a farewell lunch in this gourmet Mecca and treat ourselves to the region's famed local produce. After a indulgent day of eating and drinking in style, relax as our private plane returns us home to Sydney.
